"Put your finger here and see my hands, and bring your hand and put it into my side, and do not be unbelieving, but believe." Thomas answered and said to him, "My Lord and my God!" Jesus said to him, "Have you come to believe because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed."

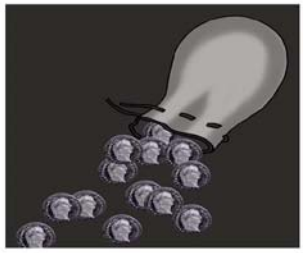
FAITH FACTS



THE APOSTLES:
JUDAS ISCARIOT
AND MATTHIAS

Judas Iscariot, one of the twelve apostles, betrayed Jesus at the first Easter. For thirty pieces of silver, he told the Jewish authorities where they could find Jesus and arrest him secretly.

Thirty pieces of silver was the price of a slave in those days.

Judas later returned the money, but then killed himself. Because of that, the eleven remaining apostles selected another of the early disciples, to replace Judas. This was Matthias. We know very little about him.

News & Updates

"Give thanks to the Lord He is good, His love is everlasting" (Psalm 118)

We have grown closer to Jesus, through Lent, His most sorrowful Passion and His glorious Resurrection. Our journey must continue in our trust and faith in our Lord and Savior.

"You expired, Jesus, but the source of life gushed forth for souls, and the ocean of mercy opened up for the whole world. O Fount of Life, unfathomable Divine Mercy, envelope the whole world and empty yourself out upon us" (Diary of St. Faustina Kowalska)

I think now is a good time to visit and understand the power of an Ancient Prayer, the Sign of the Cross. For the next few weeks we will delve into this Ancient Prayer and its meaning. Using excerpts from Bert Ghezzi's book "The Sign of the Cross"

Let's start with a quote from St. John Chrysostom (ca. 347-407) "Never leave your house without making the sign of the cross. It will be to you a staff, a weapon, an impregnable fortress. Neither man nor demon will dare to attack you, seeing you covered with such powerful armor. Let this sign teach you that you are a soldier, ready to combat against the demons, and ready to fight for the crown of justice. Are you ignorant of what the Cross has done? It has vanquished death, destroyed sin, emptied hell, dethroned Satan, and restored the universe. Would you then doubt its power?"

We invite you to join us in the multidimensional realities of the Sign of the Cross. We hope you accept, for we know you will not regret it. Tune in next week and you to will receive its immeasurable blessings.
In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, Amen.
